

Social Activities in New York and Elsewhere

NEW YORK

Mr. and Mrs. William M. V. Hoffman of Tuxedo Park are at the St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frederic Du Bois will give a supper dance on Wednesday at their home in Greenwich to introduce their daughter, Miss Diane Du Bois.

William Miller Collier, former United States Ambassador to Chile, and Mrs. Collier, who have been spending the Summer in Auburn, N. Y., have come to the Biltmore.

Mrs. Fenton B. Turck is expected to arrive at the Savoy-Plaza on Monday from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernon S. Prentice have come to the Ritz-Carlton from Ilesboro, Me., where they spent the Summer.

Mrs. Donald Worthington has arrived from Great Barrington, Mass., and is at the Berkshire.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clark have come to the Beekman from Marion, Mass.

The Misses Gertrude and Mary Van Pelt of Bryn Mawr, Pa., are at the Madison.

Mme. Wilhelm Munthe de Morgenstierne, wife of the Norwegian Minister, has come to the Waldorf-Astoria from Washington.

Mrs. George Trowbridge Elliman of Washington is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. de Zaldo de Acosta, at the Westbury.

Mrs. J. Borden Harriman of Washington is at the Drake.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Forker of Pittsburgh and the Briars, Weekapaug, R. I., are at the Waldorf-Astoria.

LONG ISLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Bowne of Highland Road, Glen Cove, will give a dinner tonight at their home for their daughter, Miss Janet Isabel Bowne, and John Richard Ellis, whose wedding takes place tomorrow in the garden of the estate.

The Meadow Brook Hunt will open its informal season of cub hunting on Thursday morning with a meet for the junior members and their guests, who will return to school and college this month.

Mrs. E. Morley French of Garden City was a luncheon hostess yesterday at the Garden City Country Club.

Mrs. De Witt Clinton Long of Garden City heads the committee in charge of the eleventh annual Fall flower show of the Stewart Manor Garden Club, which takes place at the Stewart Manor Country Club on Wednesday.

EAST HAMPTON

Miss Emma Mills gave the first of two talks on contemporary affairs yesterday morning at Mrs. Lorenzo E. Woodhouse's playhouse on Hunting Lane. She will give a second talk next Thursday. The topic yesterday was "Mexico and Latin America," where Miss Mills has passed the Summer.

The annual benefit bridge and tea for St. Luke's Episcopal Church took place yesterday afternoon at Briar Patch, home of Dr. and Mrs. Shepard Krech. Assisting Mrs. Krech at the tea table were Mrs. Ellery S. James, Mrs. Percy Schenck, Mrs. Victor Harris, Mrs. Charles S. Shoemaker, Mrs. Nathaniel Adams Campbell and Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Mumford.

The fourth annual Guild Hall Photograph Show opens this afternoon with a tea and preview.

LAKE GEORGE

The Garden Club of Lake George elected yesterday Mrs. Harold Bixby of St. Louis and Bolton Landing as president and Mrs. Franklyn L. Hyndman as corresponding secretary.

Arrivals at the Sagamore include G. C. Doughty of New York and family, Dr. M. W. Stofer and Mr. and Mrs. Irving M. Ives and family of Norwich, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Rourke of Brookhaven, L. I.; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kate of White Plains, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. William G. Terlinde of Glen Ridge, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. John Barr of Larchmont, N. Y., and two sons.

THE BERKSHIRE HILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ware Eaton have as guests at Indian Cave, Monterey, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan M. White Jr. and Mrs. August Raggi of New York and Mrs. Alexander Mason of Washington.

Arrivals at the Curtis Hotel, Lenox, include Mr. and Mrs. Grimmel Martin of New York, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Archibald Campbell Knowles of Germantown, Pa., and

MAKES DEBUT SUNDAY

Miss Priscilla Bradford
Ing-John

A debutante of the new season, Miss Bradford will be introduced to society Sunday at an afternoon reception and tea to be given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Bradford, at Windcrest Farm, their Summer home in New Canaan, Conn. Miss Bradford was graduated in June from the Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, Pa., and will enter Smith College this Autumn.

Mrs. William McG. Ingels of Pittsburgh.

At the Berkshire Inn, Great Barrington, are Mrs. Parker Brown of Rye, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Forrest of New Canaan, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Morse of Montclair, N. J.

Newcomers at the Red Lion Inn, Stockbridge, are Captain and Mrs. Robert Clifford of Washington and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Ward of Ridley Park, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beers of New Marlboro have sold their Summer home, Chestnut Lodge, to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ingram of Chappaqua, N. Y., and will spend the Winter in Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Pope have returned to Great Barrington after a two-month stay in the Canadian Rockies.

NEW JERSEY

Miss Alice Eubank of New York gave a dinner at the Essex County Country Club last night for Miss Carlene Lois Stoffregen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Stoffregen of Montclair, and her fiancé, Lieutenant W. H. C. Carhart Jr., who will be married tomorrow.

Mrs. John Y. G. Walker and Miss Edith Walton, both of Llewellyn Park, West Orange, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Hugh Criss of York Harbor, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Bouve and their children will leave tomorrow for their home in Chevy Chase, Md., after visiting Mrs. Bouve's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzhugh Spier of Madison.

Miss Elizabeth Ivins and her brother, Clinton F. Ivins Jr., have returned to Plainfield after being guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mellick Tweedy of Plainfield at the Blooming Grove Hunting and Fishing Club in Pike County, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Van Cleve Scott of Maplewood will give a buffet supper tonight for the prospective bridal party of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Scott, and Philip S. Lawrence of Oak Park, Ill., who will be wed tomorrow.

BAR HARBOR

More than two hundred Summer colonists attended a performance of the "You Can Defend America" revue, held at the Criterion Theatre yesterday afternoon. Hostesses at a tea at the Bar Harbor Club after the revue included Mrs. Aymar Johnson, Mrs. George S. Munson, Miss Alice Preston, Mrs. Hugh D. Scott, Mrs. Charles L. Slattery and Mrs. William A. Wood.

Mrs. Stanley M. Rinehart gave a dinner at her shore estate last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Blagden will entertain with a supper at their camp tonight.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS

Mrs. Aileen Allen gave a luncheon yesterday at Kate's Mountain Lodge. Others having guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Price H. Topping.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver R. Beckwith of Hartford, Conn., were dinner hosts in the Colonnades at the Greenbrier. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kempner and Mrs. Harvey Bennett also entertained there.

Arrivals at the Greenbrier include Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hargrove of New York and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson C. Janisen of Hartford.

HOT SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cross left for New York after spending the month of August at the Homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel S. Riker, accompanied by Miss Gertrude and Daniel Jr., also departed.

Arrivals at the Homestead include Mrs. Julian Humphrys, Miss Harriette Jansen, Mrs. William D. Sherwood, Mrs. Louis Nordlinger, Miss Rose Bondy and Miss Gertrude Ryan of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Harrison of Short Hills, N. J.; Dr. and Mrs. Charles C. Watt Jr. of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. Dillingham and Miss Priscilla Dillingham of Swampscott, Mass.