

Miss Morison

Elizabeth Morison Sets Nov. 29 Bridal

Elizabeth Rose Morison and George A. Dickinson Jr. plan to be married on Nov. 29 in Grace Episcopal Church.

Miss Morison, assistant to the director of development at the Phoenix Theater in New York, is a daughter of Betty Jane Johnson of Bar Harbor, Me., who announced her daughter's engagement to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson of Dobbs Ferry, N.Y.

The bride-to-be's mother is owner of the Criterion Theater in Bar Harbor, of which her father, the late Peter Greene Morison, was owner and manager. Miss Morison was graduated from St. Paul's School in Concord, N.H., and cum laude from Harvard College. She is a granddaughter of the late Rear Admiral Samuel Eliot Morison, U.S.N., the historian and professor at Harvard College and Oxford University.

Mr. Dickinson, an associate in the architectural firm of Louis Mackall & Company in Branford, Conn., graduated from the Park School in Buffalo and the Cornell University School of Architecture. His father is a partner in the New York law firm of Seward, Grant & Dickinson and his mother is president of Anne Dickinson Interiors in Dobbs Ferry.
